

THE WINTERS ADVOCATE.

SATURDAY, AUGUST 13, 1876

National Democratic Nominations.

FOR PRESIDENT.

Samuel J. Tilden,

OF NEW YORK.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT.

Thos. A. Hendricks,

OF INDIANA.

FOR PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS.

W. M. TAYLOR, J. F. BUDS, BARCLAY HENLEY, J. C. SHORS.

FOR CONGRESSMAN.

J. E. LUTTRELL,

OF SONOMA COUNTY.

General Franz Sigel is out for Tilden.

"We fight with Sigel."

Tennessee is overrun with Tilden and Hendricks clubs.

William Cullen Bryant, Republican, is out for Tilden.

Austin Blair, Michigan's popular "war Governor," has declared for Tilden and Hendricks.

The St. Louis Globe-Democrat (Wheeler and Hayes) says: Carl Schurz is on our side this time, but we think we can win the fight, nevertheless.

The "Twenty-ninthers," a band of youths who intend casting their votes for Tilden and Hendricks has been organized in San Francisco.

The Glasgow (Ky.) Times says: "Tilden and Hendricks are taking like fire in dry grass in this section, and Tilden and Hendricks Liberty poles are being raised all over the State."

Reform within the Radical ranks began in Illinois by the nomination of Godlove S. Ogb, the hero of the notorious Venezuela episode, for Governor. A specimen of Godlove peculiar to the party.

An Indiana town had a Radical torch-light procession last week, which was four hours in length. The given point was a whiskey saloon, and the crowd wouldn't have got past it at all except that the police carried them past to the lockup.

The Baltimore Gazette says: The Chicago Times and St. Louis Republican, two newspapers which have been out of the Democratic fold for several years, have come back to advocate Tilden and Hendricks.

The New York Herald says: "Suppose Grant should take to his heels to flee and leave the country in the hands of Perry and the Republican infatigables, where then would be the canvas for Hayes and Wheeler?" Gone where the woodbine twines.

Brick Pomeroy, the newly acquired pet of the Radicals, says: "Samuel J. Tilden will never be President of the United States. On this prophecy I stake my reputation." Brick Pomeroy staking his reputation! We pity the man who would win such a stake!

The National Radical Committee, who have charge of the Hayes campaign, are said to be dumfounded at the news which reached Washington a few days ago, to the effect that the Germans in Michigan, who have heretofore sided with the Radicals, are going over in large bodies to Tilden.

Returns from the election in Alabama show large Democratic gains. Out of 65 counties, every one will give Democratic majorities except six or seven. The Democrats will have 37 out of 33 Senators, and at least 80 out of 100 Representatives. Carpet-bagging as far as Alabama is concerned has gone where the woodbine twines.

The Republicans propose to elect Hayes President in place of Grant. The whole number of public officers is estimated to be ninety thousand. One to be changed and eighty-nine thousand nine hundred and ninety-nine left in. One drop in the fall of cent milk is to be changed; will that make the whole fall sweet?

Republicans indulge in gross slanders of Tilden, because he is supported by John Morrisey. Hayes is warmly endorsed by Belknap, Robeson, Babcock, Butler, Joyce, McDonald, Avery, Peckard, Warrmouth, Shepard, and all the big and little administration thieves, that have plundered the country for fifteen years.

Judge Abell, of Louisiana, says that during the past eight years more money has been stolen from the State Treasury by officers of the Government than has been stolen in the same State by all the un-official thieves, robbers, and burglars who have operated in Louisiana during the whole time since it was purchased from the French.

It is about time to begin hearing of "brutal outrages," "massacres of colored people," etc., in the Southern States, in order to pave the way for the "necessary means," bayonets and bullets, to carry the elections. The New York Times, Radical, insists that more United States troops are needed in the South. Naturally so. Just as much needed as "brutal outrages," for where is the use of manufacturing brutal outrages for the Southern States unless United States troops are kept there to stir the people up with their bayonets.

HISTORY.

History tells of a similar state of things to that at present existing in our country.

A party working itself into power under a false plea, having attained its object, moved onward step by step, backed by unscrupulous adherents, it attained a position similar to ours at the present time, and met a fate that may be ours unless checked by a return to the government of equal rights, honestly administered, instituted by our forefathers. That the present administration is tyrannical and corrupt is made the more transparent every day by its actions, and of those of its adherents who cannot observe so visible a fact, we should say, "eyes they have but see not; ears they have but hear not." But how can this state of things be remedied in the future? The Republicans have nominated a man to succeed Grant who they claim to be a pure man. Allowing him to be such, could he, if elected, hope to be surrounded by men who would assist him in inaugurating the needed reform? We think not. How was it with Mr. Johnson, the successor of President Lincoln? Johnson possessed a Roman firmness of will, and determined to administer the affairs of government honestly. Finding they could not control his actions in their interest, he was hounded by the carmenants, who never let up till they had him impeached, and would have succeeded in their nefarious design but for the vote of two or three of the honest Senators of their party, who were exterminated by his persecutors for their course in the matter. These carmenants are still in existence, and constitute a power behind the throne which cannot be shaken off, save by the advent of the Democratic party to power. This consummation, so devoutly hoped for by a large number of prominent men of Mr. Hayes' own party, and this alone, can make clean sweep of the host of carmenants who have fed and fattened on corruption, and brought our country to become a disgrace in eyes of all honest and honorable citizens and a byword among the nations of the earth.

LETTERS OF ACCEPTANCE.

The long agony of the Radicals is over.

The letters of acceptance of Tilden and Hendricks are before the people, and the Radical party hacks are busy at work commenting on portions of their contents, with what unanimity the following may serve as specimens. The Chicago Times (Radical), thinks "If Mr. Tilden is in favor of specie payments." The Record-Union (Radical), on the other hand, says: "Now, if anything is clear about his letter it appears to be that it is his opposition to specie payments." Again, the N. Y. Times (Radical), says: "The cloak under which Tilden seeks to hide his shameful advocacy of repudiation is the pretense that the promise cannot be kept." And per contra, the telegraph, another party hack, in a dispatch to the Associated Press, says: "He (Tilden) has dodged the question of repudiation and repudiation altogether." And thus they go on, entirely ignoring the vital turning point in the coming election, to-wit: the reform necessary to bring us back from a rapid approach to despotism to a government of and for the people, and in the words of Mr. Tilden, to rescue us from "a prevalent and demoralizing notion that the public service exists not for the benefit of the whole people, but for the interests of office holders, under which pernicious error public employments have been multiplied beyond any possible requirement of public business, while inefficiency, peculation, fraud and misadministration of public business from high places of power to the lowest have corrupted the whole service like a leprosy." This topic, as a matter of course, finds no place in the comments of the Radical press.

THE WOODLAND CORRESPONDENCE.

WOODLAND, August 2, 1876.

EDITOR ADVOCATE: Assessor R. H. Bamer has just made his settlement on Road and Poll Taxes for the fiscal year 1876-7. The total amount collected up to date $7,812 being more than the collections of 1875. He is now collecting the additional $1 from all delinquents on the Poll Tax proper. The Road Tax remains the same until the 1st of October when it will become $3. All persons whether owners of property or otherwise, will find it to their interest to pay this just tax before the time expires. He reports 343 Road taxes and 270 Poll taxes collected from Chinamen alone, making the handsome total of $1,236 at the hands of our Celestial population. And the end is not yet. Many property owners have allowed their Poll tax to become delinquent. Don't you think you, we hear better settle? If you don't, and ever come to Woodland with a black satchel on one end of a stick and a China hat on the other you will find Richard a walking away with it, for he is heavy on the Celestials.

I was invited by B. F. Harlin, the Warden of the Hospital, to visit that institution this afternoon. There are 13 patients there at present, having lost two by death recently; David Taylor the man sent from Knight's Landing died the 30th of July, aged 60 years, a native of New York. He was a man respected by all, and a "do" and W. F. Pace a native of New Hampshire recently from Plainfield, who died the same day of paralysis, aged 40 years. There are several very critical cases in the hospital at present but all rest on the very best of attention, the physician, Dr. G. H. Jackson, visiting them from three to four times daily. I find the Warden very careful and kind and obliging to the patients, and everything kept in the best of order and scrupulously clean and neat, and, as conducted by an honor to the county and those having charge of it.

Hon. J. D. Stephens has just returned from a trip to the Centennial looking well and hearty and with a pocket full of nickels, which he is ready to lend to his friends on good security at one and one-fourth per cent interest payable semi-annually.

J. S. Simpson has sold his drug store to W. H. Sudden and J. B. Elston. Mr. Sudden is too well known throughout the county for me to comment upon him. Mr. J. B. Elston comes highly recommended from the East. He graduated from the College of Pharmacy of Philadelphia and had two years experience in the drug business in the same city. He is lately from Gedalia, Mo. where he has been 4 years in the wholesale and retail drug business.

Our Woodland Jockey Club races will commence September 12th. Entries will close Sept. 5th.

Dr. J. D. Stephens, a leading Republican of Brooklyn, N. Y., reports Carl Schurz, and says, "the honest bulk of the Germans, and their inborn love of liberty and reform and their hatred of secondhandness of all kinds will join the reform ranks of Tilden."

G. M. ROBERTS, W. E. TREAVENNA, TREASURER OF RECORDS AND ATTORNEYS AT-LAW.

PREPARED to do surveying in any part of the County, at the shortest notice. Office in the Court House, Woodland.

DISASTROUS FIRE!

FIVE HOUSES BURNED.

Last evening, about 10 o'clock, the alarm of fire, was sounded for the first time in Winters, and created, as was to be expected, an intense excitement, especially as we have no fire engine or means of procuring a sufficient head of water to operate successfully against a fire at this dry season of the year.

Fire was discovered issuing from the kitchen of the Stanton House, on the corner of First and Abby streets, and in a few minutes the flames were beyond control and enveloped the entire building. The heat being so intense as to prevent a near approach, consequently none of the contents were saved, save one trunk and a chair. A few months since Mr. Stanton from the increase of patronage was obliged to add an addition of two stories to the house, and was doing a good business in his line when the fire of last night overtook and allowed him but bare time to escape with his family. Mr. S. is insured to the amount of $1,200 in the North British and Mercantile Insurance Companies, Loss, $3,000.

The flames next reached the dwelling house of Mr. Wagner on Abby street, which soon shared the fate of the Stanton House. Insured for $700 in the Firemen's Fund Company, San Francisco.

The residence of Mr. Free adjoining the above, was pulled down in order to stop the fury of the flames.

J. M. Shaw's residence, adjoining, next took fire and was consumed. Insured in the Home Mutual Ins. Co.

The flames then reached the home owned by A. T. Walker, and occupied by Mr. Dumas, situated on the corner of the alley on Abby street, and spite of the energetic efforts put forth to save it, was totally destroyed. Insured in the Phoenix Ins. Company.

J. Murray sustained a damage of about $100 on stock and furniture.

The contents of the burned buildings, excepting the Stanton House, were mostly saved, a portion of which is stored in the rooms attached to this office.

INCIDENTS.

The proprietors of the Occidental Hotel, Winters Hotel and Parker House, three open their doors for the accommodation of the families, for which generous act we have been requested to tender them the thanks of the sufferers. Other sufferers also found accommodation in private families.

When the fire had reached the house of Mr. Walker, the greatest anxiety was manifested lest the flames should reach the China wash house on the opposite side of the alley, next door to which the residence of Mr. J. M. Murray. Blankets were spread on the roof and all the water that could be procured dashed on, but still fears were entertained of there being little chance of saving it, as it endangered the houses between it and Railroad street, on both sides of Abby, including the Occidental Hotel. But just at this juncture one of the Winters' sprinkling carts, with four horses ahead came rushing to the scene, and to Mr. W.'s generous forthrightness, that still more disastrous conflagration that would have undoubtedly swept away a large portion of the business part of the town. We learn that a child was rescued from one of the burning buildings by a gentleman who rushed into the house, wrapped the child in a blanket and brought it out safely.

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

TEMPERANCE LECTURE.—Mr. Leland, Grand Lecturer of the Grand Lodge of Good Templars of this State, lectured in the Cumberland Presbyterian church on Sunday last. The lecture was listened to by a respectable audience, the speaker being one of those gifted individuals who can blend instruction with amusement and command the attention of the audience to the subject even to dry. During the lecture, the speaker went after all classes with a pretty sharp stick—ladies, young and old; girls, young and old; ministers, doctors, editors, saloon-keepers, etc., gracefully blunting the sharp end of the stick in some cases with, "I don't suppose there's any of the kind alluded to in Winters, but we have them up in Oregon." To sum up, we can say this much for the Lecturer, that with the exception of John B. Gough, we have never heard a temperance lecturer who could command the undivided attention of his audience, as did Mr. Leland on Sunday last. The plates illustrating the condition of the stomach from the total abstinence man to the moderate drinker and through all the stages up to the delirium tremens, assisted the lecturer in placing his subject before the audience, and his elucidations, being a physician himself, were clear and to the point.

WARNING.—The fire of Saturday night last should teach our citizens three things: First, the absolute necessity of organizing an engine and hook and ladder company with suitable apparatus. Secondly, the erection of a public water cistern of large capacity to enable the said apparatus to work efficiently and stop a fire at its inception; and thirdly, if found necessary, by incorporating the town, so that competent authority may exist to compel those necessary adjuncts for the preservation of the property of our citizens from the destructive element of fire. Had these appliances been on hand on Saturday night last, it is painfully apparent much of the property destroyed might have been saved. Our citizens though working fearfully and faithfully failed in their efforts to stop the conflagration until it had destroyed property which might have been secured against harm had the appliances alluded to been at hand to aid them in their efforts. "A stitch in time saves nine," is a truism that applies with force to our position with respect to the ravages of the destructive element of fire.

Tax Rescue.—In the excitement attending the fire of Saturday night, the youngest child of Mr. Stinson, in whose house the fire originated, failed to make her escape. When this became known, Michael Manning, section boss on the railroad, rushed into the burning building, and fortunately finding the child, wrapped it in a blanket and succeeded in bringing her to her parents in safety. But for this heroic act the child would have been consumed in the flames, as in a few minutes after emerging from the building it was entirely enveloped in flames. Mr. M. deserves great praise for accomplishing so laudable an act at the risk of his own life.

THE NEW CHURCH.—We have been favored with the names of the gentlemen who undertook the erection of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church in this town at their own expense. The case being one so rarely occurring in church building, gives it prominence as an inducement for others to "Go and do likewise." The gentlemen alluded to are: S. C. Wolf, skill, 2 shares; Baker & Bro., 2. Wolfkill, D. P. Edwards, D. Robinson, Mansfield & Theodore, Blum & Co., A. and G. B. Stevenson; Theodore Winters and T. M. Johnson.

THE GRANGERS.—At a special meeting of Buckeye Grange, an appropriation in money was made for the relief of the families of the members of the Order who suffered the loss of their property by the late fire. Independent of this timely appropriation the members of the Grange individually contributed relief in the matter of provisions, clothing, etc. The Grange is a benevolent institution, and prompt to relieve its members who may be suffering from any of the ills of life.

INVESTIGATION.—On Saturday last, the Yolo and Solano Jockey Club held a meeting to investigate a charge against the man known as Spanish Charley, the rider of the horse Bradley at the recent races. He was charged with throwing off the race, and the winning horse, General Sherman, which charge, if substantiated, would prevent him from riding on any race course in the State in the future. After hearing evidence he was exonerated from the charge.

CHARGE OF PROPRIETOR.—Mr. T. B. Lyons having bought out the wine and billiard parlors of Lum Roberts in Sackett's Building, will continue to keep the best of wines, liquors, cigars, etc. The billiard table of the establishment is of superior make.

DRUGABAND.—Patrick Murphy, arrested on a charge of stealing, on Monday last, was released from custody next day by Justice Hulse, the complainant failing to appear and substantiate the charge.

Don't carry your own risks. But get your property insured with Blum & Co., Agents for the London, Liverpool and Globe Insurance Company, one of the best companies in the world.

SERVING.—We call the attention of the citizens of Winters and vicinity, who may have occasion for the services of a surveyor, to the card of M. A. Niles, County Surveyor of Yolo county.

LAW.—We commend the attention of those having law business at the County Seat to the card of Messrs. Treadwell & Garoute, in another column of this paper.

The Occidental Hotel changed hands on Monday last.

OUR VISIT TO WOODLAND.

In company with our friend J. A. Brown proprietor of this Winters Livery Stable, we paid a visit to Woodland this week, and found everything looking lively, business flourishing and everybody smiling and gay. We were surprised to find so many acquaintances of other days who have faced upon Woodland as their permanent home, among them A. O. Reed, who we met on his way to visit Winters with his family. We enjoyed a pleasant hour with A. C. Keen and his amiable family. We also fell in with our friend E. J. Haight, partner in the firm of E. Bynum & Co. drug-gists and apothecaries, and was conducted through their establishment, one of the finest fitted up and best regulated and stocked we have seen outside of San Francisco. We also visited the County Building, and were charmed by Messrs. Maunby and Hillier, to whom we tender thanks for courtesies shown us. In the County Jail a model prison in all respects we found the following prisoners: Two charged with murder; 6 with grand larceny; 1 embezzlement; 1 assault with deadly weapon; and working in the chain gang, 2 for petty larceny, 1 for battery, and 1 for making threats against life and property. At the Capital Hotel we found a smiling landlord, and we left regretting business at home prevented us from extending our visit. To all our Woodland friends we tender thanks for kindness shown us, but was disappointed on calling to find our historical friend of the Mail not at home. We also called on our friend Saunders, of the Democrat, and found him in a flourishing condition.

PERSONAL.

Col. A. M. Stevenson, of Vacaville, Col. John A. Tait, of Cottonwood, and G. W. Scott, of Capay, were in town on Saturday. Mr. Russell, proprietor of the Dixon Brewery, and F. B. Chandler, of Elmira, were in town on Monday.

Judge Landers and deputy sheriff Now-ris, of Woodland, and Eli Bess, formerly of Winters, but now of Sacramento, were in town on Tuesday.

A. G. M. Deville left town on Tuesday for the East, on a visit to "the old house at home," in Missouri.

Insurance agents were in town on Tuesday, adjusting and settling losses by the fire.

Mr. Henderson, of the firm of Powers & Henderson, Sacramento, was in town Wednesday.

A. G. Reed and family of Woodland, arrived in town Thursday, on a visit to their relatives.

W. B. Humann, proprietor of King's Hotel, Dixon, was in town on Thursday.

R. H. Pettit, cigar manufacturer of Sacramento and Mr. Craner, of Cottonwood, visited town yesterday.

Professor Smith, of Woodland, has been holding evening services during the week in the M. E. Church South.

BERKELEY.—The editor of the Napa Register, visited Berryessa valley last week, and says of it: "Though the valley is somewhat remote from shipping facilities, and the roads leading thereto heavy and mountainous, yet the farmers of Berryessa are the most prosperous of any in the State. Mr. Buford will make 6,000 sacks of grain this year from 400 acres of land, the greater part of it volunteer. Mr. Bostwick will make between 37,000 and 38,000 sacks. Mr. Bostwick will also make a large crop. Abram Clark will make 25,000 sacks, and with his Colusa farm 100,000 sacks. He has lately bought the place of Robert C. Gillispy." We are sorry the editor did not extend his trip to Winters. He would have both seen and felt the difference between "heavy and mountainous roads" to Napa, and a good road with a down grade to Winters, with good shipping facilities at its terminus here.

GIVE THEM A CALL.—In the grocery store of Dryfus & Spaulding can be found a large stock of groceries, provisions, fruits, etc., and they are prepared to furnish families and transient customers, with all the necessities and comforts of life at reasonable rates. Accommodating to their patrons and doing business on the square should be sufficient inducement to the citizens of the town and surrounding country to favor the firm with a share of their custom. They are constantly receiving new goods in their line.

MEAT STORAGE ROOM.—The Grangers having made an addition to their extensive warehouse this season, are compelled by the urgent demands upon them for storage accommodation, to erect another warehouse 48x100 feet, with a storage capacity of 1500 tons. The location of the new warehouse is east of the Railroad track.

The new warehouse of Hill Brothers is nearly filled to its capacity with grain on storage, and the cry is, yet it comes.

INJURED.—Mr. J. Laycock received a somewhat severe injury at the fire on Saturday night by the fall of a ladder from one of the burning buildings striking him on the back while in a stooping position. James Worden was also hurt, a burning board falling on his arm and burning it severely. J. M. Reswick was prostrated from over-exertion.

FAMILY RESIDENCES.—Persons wishing lots on which to erect family residences are referred to the advertisement of Blum & Co. in another column. The lots offered for sale are very desirably situated.

DIXON BREWERY.—Mr. Russell has purchased the interest of Thomas Berry in the Dixon Brewery, and will supply customers in Winters as heretofore. J. C. Lemmon is his agent here.

RATTLE.—Tickets for the raffle of a house and lot in this town, are now on sale. The lot is 25x120 feet, with a good well of water. The house contains four rooms, newly finished throughout and insured for one year. Two hundred and fifty chances at $3 each.

Dr. W. C. Harding, Dentist, will be at Suisun, 7th to 12th August. Vacaville, 14th to 19th August. Vacaville, 21st to 26th August. Winters, 28th Aug. to 2nd Sept. Suisun 4th to 9th Sept. Address all communications to office at Suisun.

CALIFORNIA COLLEGE.

THE Fall Term of this Institution begins THURSDAY, the 17th inst. The prospects for the coming year are encouraging. A larger attendance of students from abroad than during the last year is confidently expected. The local patronage it is also believed will be fully as large as ever. It is the determination of the Faculty to maintain a high standard of scholarship and discipline in all departments of the College.

PROF. T. M. STEWART, of Indianapolis, Ind., has just been elected to the Chair of Mathematics and Natural Philosophy. A graduate of high standing, a studious, growing man, an enthusiastic teacher and a Christian gentleman, PROF. STEWART will certainly do his part in sustaining and advancing the highest interests of the Institution.

MISS LUCY WOLCOTT, of Granville, Ohio, has been appointed as Teacher of Painting—both oil and water colors—and Drawing. MISS WOLCOTT was the pupil of a distinguished Professor, formerly in a German University, and also of Prof. Jasper, now of Ohio, who gives an unequivocal testimonial as to her proficiency in painting and drawing. We confidently introduce this lady artist to the friends and pupils of CALIFORNIA COLLEGE.

Instruction will also be given in Vocal and Instrumental Music by a most competent teacher. The position of Professor of Music will be formally filled at an election the first of September.

The other positions will be filled as shown by the Catalogue, including those of instruction in Printing and Telegraphy.

EXPENSES.

BOARD AND ROOM, PER WEEK, $5.00

TUITION, PER TERM, 26.00

Painting and Instrumental Music Extra.

A STUDENTS' RECEPTION will be held at the College Boarding House soon after the opening of the Term, to which all the students, both young men and women, and all friends of the Institution, are cordially invited.

All new students should make it a point to be present at the beginning of the Session. TUITION PAYABLE STRICTLY IN ADVANCE.

For further information send for Catalogue, or address the PRESIDENT, THOMAS W. GREENE.
